

MET6203 Assignment #4
Web Page Design Activity
90 Points Possible

Assigned: November 1, 2005

Due Date: Posted to the Web by Monday, November 14, 2005 @ 11:59 pm

Assignment Description from the Syllabus:

Create a web page activity that requires students to design a web page (e.g., a web page for book reports/reviews, web page about each student). As part of this activity create a sample web page for them. Your web page must include links to other parts of the web page, links to other web sites on the Internet, graphics/images/clip art and an email link.

Key Deliverables:

- Student Worksheet, html format, named index.htm
- Answer Key, html format, named answerkey.htm
- Scavenger Hunt Web site (uploaded to www.ltumet.com)

Additional Information:

- 1) In this activity, you will be converting your Internet Scavenger Hunt Student Worksheet and Answer Key (Assignment #3) to a Web activity
- 2) You will create 2 Web pages using a Web authoring tool. Dreamweaver is preferred; FrontPage and Composer are also acceptable. Word is not acceptable
- 3) Specifications detailing the structure, contents and format of these 2 Web pages will be provided
- 4) The pages are being designed for viewing on screen and printing
- 5) Your activity will include only 5 of the Web sites from Assignment #3

Evaluation:

This assignment is worth 90 points. Evaluation will be based on the following:

- _____ Does the Student Worksheet follow the format and specifications presented in the template?
- _____ Does the Answer Key follow the format and specifications presented in the template?
- _____ Do all external Web sites open in a new browser window? Do all internal pages open in the same browser window?
- _____ Do all links and anchor tags work correctly?
- _____ Were all required files uploaded to the Itumet Web server? Does the file structure of the uploaded Web site follow the specifications?
